

ANNUAL THREE WAY INTERNATIONAL BATTLE

Date: Tuesday 25th January 2022

UK Judge: Roger Ford (who is experienced in selecting FIAP salons in the UK and overseas besides normal photo-club judging)

The competition was played out over three -rounds in Nivernais, Koblenz and Norwich with the winners being awarded the Alan Taylor Memorial Trophy to hold for one year until the next competition.

This year's competition was organised, and the overall scores validated by Ciné - Photo Club Nivernais. Each club enters twenty images plus one reserve which are shown to the judges anonymously in the same random order. The images selected represent the best work of each Club. A reserve image is also entered a scored but is only used in the event of a tie after all the three rounds are completed and the scores validated.

Norwich & District Photographic Society was declared winners and therefore retain the Alan Taylor Memorial trophy. The final result was as follows:

FIRST - Norwich and District Photographic Society with 468.0 points

SECOND - Foto Club Koblenz with 437.0 points (-21 points)

THIRDD - Ciné-Photo Club Nivernais with 425.5 points (--42.5)

Special congratulations go to François Pacaud from Nivernais whose image MATIN D'HIVER scored the highest individual score in the competition.

Second (equal) was SILENCIEUX by Jörg Möhlig from Koblenz and MOONRISE by Des King from Norwich

Third (equal) was by Justin Minns and THE ICE QUEEN by Maurice Young both from Norwich.
