Members of Norwich & District Photographic Society (NDPS) are responsible for their own safety and must not do anything or behave in a manner that could jeopardise either their own safety or that of others. By signing below you agree to make yourself aware of potential health and safety risks that might arise whilst attending NDPS meetings or other events organised by NDPS.

NDPS has a policy in place to ensure the safety and wellbeing of junior and vulnerable members of the Society and at large. This policy is in line with the guidelines set out by the East Anglian Federation of Photographic Societies, to which NDPS is affiliated. By signing below you are confirming that you are aware of and will adhere to this policy.

From time to time NDPS may reproduce any images or photographs taken by members on the Society's website, in the media, in exhibitions, competitions or other promotional material. The copyright of all images and photographs used by NDPS remains with the Member unless otherwise agreed in writing. By signing below you confirm that you are willing for your images or photographs to be used in this way.

NDPS keeps details of members on electronic media. This information is for internal club use only and will NOT be divulged to third parties. The information is only accessible to the NDPS Data Controllers. This policy is in line with the guidelines set out by the East Anglian Federation of Photographic Societies, to which NDPS is affiliated. To comply with the data protection legislation, NDPS requires your consent to keep details about you in this way. By signing below you are giving your consent.
